Group/ Individual:

This can be done in a group in a classroom setting or via email in remote locations.

This can also be done as an individual project, please refer to your teacher's instructions for details.

Activity:

Imagine that you are an owner of a professional race team. You must make a list of people that you need to look for in the work force to be a part of your team. You will need to come up with a list of people who you believe are essential parts of a race team. You can use the resource links that we have provided as a guide. Once you have your list created please explain why each person is important to the success of the team.
